Volunteers will stay in comfortable private rooms in the Dunav Hotel, located in the center of Svishtov. Volunteers will be given access to a restaurant that is suitable for all hygienic conditions, which should be eaten very tasty and preferred. Breakfast and dinner will be served at the hotel restaurant. Lunch on volunteers will be used in a restaurant near the office of the Institute Perspectives or if necessary near this site implementation of the Initiatives. Moving volunteers from the Hotel to the office of the Association "Institute of Perspectives" or to check other neighbors as public institutions, schools will continue on foot by the volunteers themselves, as such distances in the town of Svishtov are short. Getting around to any organized voluntary activity for solidarity, which is at a distance of more than 1.5 km. in terms of accommodation for volunteers, will only be part of a taxi or a licensed transport company. Each volunteer will be provided with a simple local place in our office that performs its activities. Revenues from the town of Svishtov, the trip will be guaranteed by a licensed transport company. Volunteers will be accommodated in double rooms. Volunteers will eat in restaurants. During the traveling months, participants will stay in double-bed rooms (months of May-June, and months of October-March 2022)

The visiting of the villages Batin and Vardim will be by the cars, and the other areas of the Bulgaria will be done by the train or bus.
